

NO PLAN 'B'

The World Today
Is a curious place.
Curious? I mean, furious.
So much anger. Directed

At who, what?
Should be simple:
One planet,
One population

Sharing resources,
With plenty to go around
If properly managed,
Cultivated wisely.

What's the problem?
What's the issue?
Pass me a tissue.
The world today

Has gone insane.
With policies and beliefs
Positively inane!
Say it clear, say it plain:

One planet
One population
One problem
One solution

A nuclear holocaust
A climatic calamity
Another game show
Learning to, together, grow?

What say you?
